Chuck Taylor is Managing Director - Real Estate Investments at Domain Capital Advisors LLC, a SEC-registered investment adviser and a subsidiary of Domain Capital Group. His responsibilities include client development, investment sourcing, acquisition due-diligence, asset management and ongoing client support for real estate investments.

The early years of Mr. Taylor's career included two years with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) —first as a Senior Associate in the Real Estate group within Financial Advisory Services practice, then as a Manager. In 1999, Mr. Taylor joined JPMorgan Chase where he worked in nearly every aspect of the commercial real estate debt business. During his 10-year tenure, he contributed to $8+ billion of CRE transactions, was named co-head of the Atlanta office, and was later promoted to Executive Director and Head of CMBS Underwriting for the East Region.

Mr. Taylor spent two years as Head of Acquisitions for Reynolds Capital Group before joining A10 Capital in 2011. As Principal and Executive VP for the start-up lender, he sourced and closed $200M+ in loan volume and was among the top performing originators of CRE Bridge Loans for four years straight.

Most recently, Mr. Taylor was Managing Director at RealtyMogul.com where he worked on opportunities across the capital stack. Notably, Mr. Taylor was the leading equity originator throughout his 2+ year tenure with the firm. He also served as Executive Manager for RM Advisor, the managing entity for the firm's SEC registered non-traded REITs.

Mr. Taylor is a member of the Pension Real Estate Association (PREA), Institute for Real Estate Operating Companies (iREOC), Urban Land Institute (ULI), and sits on the Advisory Board for the University of Florida Bergstrom Center for Real Estate. He has also served as Treasurer, Chairman and member of the Board of Directors for Covenant Community Inc, an Atlanta-based non-profit. He holds a B.A. in Economics and an M.A. in Real Estate from University of Florida.
