David Seaman is Executive Managing Director and President at Domain Capital Group, the parent company of two registered investment subsidiaries, Domain Capital Advisors, LLC and Domain Timber Advisors, LLC. In this role, he is responsible for spearheading various strategic initiatives, with the goal of advancing Domain’s continued growth in its core investment verticals, assets under management, and securing top industry talent.

Mr. Seaman brings more than three decades of real estate and private equity experience. He has wide-ranging knowledge of acquisition and valuation in asset and loan transactions, including large, single-asset acquisitions, and portfolio and operating company acquisition analysis and structuring.

Prior to Domain, Mr. Seaman was a partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in New York for 22 years, where he was recognized as one of the nation’s leading experts in real estate private equity fund formation. During that time, he assisted many different funds and placement agents in developing and analyzing historical performance metrics. Additionally, he worked with equity capital providers, private equity firms, real estate operating companies and real estate funds to develop strategic alternatives for troubled or underperforming assets.

Mr. Seaman earned his Bachelor of Science from Lehigh University and a Master of Business Administration from Columbia University.
