Carolyn Seabolt is Managing Director, Chief Operating Officer, and General Counsel at Domain Capital Group, the parent company of two registered investment adviser subsidiaries, Domain Capital Advisors, LLC and Domain Timber Advisors, LLC. In these roles, she is primarily responsible for general legal oversight of the firm, as well as oversight of administrative and operational business functions.

Ms. Seabolt began her legal career in 1995 with the Atlanta-based law firm of Wilson Strickland & Benson, practicing in the areas of general civil litigation, and later focusing on commercial real estate transactions. In 2001, she accepted an Associate Attorney position with global law firm Holland & Knight LLP in their commercial real estate group. Throughout her five-year tenure with the firm, she represented clients in a variety of commercial real estate matters, including office, industrial and retail leasing and development, cellular tower leasing and development and secured lending.

Her most recent career accolades include 11 years with an Atlanta-based timberland investment management organization, specializing in acquiring and managing timberland, timberland-related, and environmental investments on behalf of public and private pension plans, corporations, foundations, endowments and high-net-worth individuals. As Associate General Counsel and General Counsel, respectively, she not only provided general legal oversight for the firm, but also counseled the company's senior management team, managed their in-house legal team and led a diverse group of outside legal counsel.

Ms. Seabolt is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Georgia and the Atlanta Bar Association. She received a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Georgia and a Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Georgia State University College of Law.
